[1] Deductible per policy year refers to the initial part of a loss that the insured must be responsible for according to the insurance contract. Deductible amount will count only the expenses that the insured is entitled to receive under this contract, which does not include the endorsement of out-patient benefits (if any).
[2] Insured age of 11 years old and above on the effective date or since the policy anniversary date after insured age of 11 years old.
[3] As charged benefits are only for some items, additional details are available in the benefits table. Total benefits under group 1 through group 13 including out-patient benefits and medical expenses (if any) must not exceed the maximum benefits per policy year.
[4] Critical illness refers to the critical illness according to the definition of critical illness that is covered under endorsement on critical illness coverage.
[5] The maximum benefits will be increased to double amount of the sum assured if the insured is diagnosed to critical illness listed in the policy for the first time according to the definition in the policy.

- The applicant has the duty to provide true information in applying for insurance. Any concealment of truth or declaration of false statements may cause the insurance company to cancel the insurance contract or refuse to pay the claims under the insurance contract.
- The applicant is advised to study and make thorough understanding about the benefit illustrations before making decision to purchase the insurance. After receiving the policy, please study the details and the terms and conditions as specified in the policy contract.
- Terms and conditions of coverage will be specified in the policy issued to the policyholder.

Scenario 1

Kiddee age 40

Occupation : Private corporate employee
Responsibilities : A family leader of a little cute 3-year-old daughter.

Khun Kiddee, a perfectionist with strict discipline in life, always plan for his financial equity. After analyzing his own health welfare, which already provides some protection for his daughter, but he realized that it would not be enough to cover all expenses. Hence, he seeks for additional appropriate coverage for medical expenses. The AIA agent recommends AIA Health Happy Kids (Plan 5MB) an insurance plan with coverage of 5,000,000 Baht, a deductible amount of 10,000 Baht per policy year, and the first year premium payment of 64,400 Baht.

Giving him the peace of mind that his daughter will receive adequate coverage of medical expenses no matter what happens to him in the future.

Example : His 3-year-old daughter is admitted to the hospital for pneumonitis for a period of 4 days. The table below displays the listing medical expense bill in the hospital and the total benefit paid by AIA

Unit : Baht
